PRIs to implement Centrally sponsored schemes

*334. SHRI A. VIJAYARAGHAVAN: Will the Minister of PANCHAYATI RAJ be pleased to state:

(a) whether the third meeting of State Ministers of Panchayati Raj had proposed to make Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) play a key role in implementing the Centrally sponsored schemes;

(b) if so, whether the Competent Authority has approved the above proposal;

(c) if so, the details including steps taken/to be taken to implement the same;

(d) the details of steps taken/to be taken to identify such Centrally sponsored schemes as on today; and

(e) the details of the steps taken by State Governments in mainstreaming local self-Government institutions by devolving power and funds, State-wise and category-wise as on date?

THE MINISTER OF PANCHAYATI RAJ (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) to (d) Yes, Sir. A key priority of the Ministry of Pachayati Raj is to critically examine major Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSSs) to ensure that in the design, articulation of their guidelines, and subsequently in implementation, the operationalizing of CSSs do not overlook the salience of Panchayats and Gram Sabhas. In September, 2004, the Prime Minister's Office approved a suggestion from the Ministry of Panchayati Raj that all Ministries operating CSSs should review their respective schemes in the light of the 73rd Constitutional Amendment, so that they are in consonance with Article 243 G read with Eleventh Schedule of the Constitution. The Eleventh Schedule has an illustrative listing of 29 matters that every State Government ought to devolve to Panchayats. It was further approved that the Ministry of Panchayati Raj should be consulted and its views incorporated in Notes prepared for Cabinet Committees, in respect of new Centrally Sponsored Schemes. Accordingly, The Ministry of Panchayati Raj has been in dialogue with Central Government Ministries over 2005 and 2006, and some modifications have been incorporated in some of the Centrally Sponsored Schemes. The Cabinet Secretary has repeatedly reminded Central Government Ministries of their responsibility towards incorporating appropriate modifications. However, the response pattern was not always sufficiently brisk.

In order to further galvanize this process, and at the request of the Minister for Panchayati Raj, Youth Affairs, Sports, and DONER, a Review Corrimittee has been constituted in the Cabinet Secretariat with Secretary (Coordination and Public Grievances) and Secretary (Panchayati Raj) as Co-Chairs. This Review Committee has commenced its meetings on 17 August, 2007, and has already met with Secretaries of nine Central Ministries to determine the extent of centrality being accorded, in letter and spirit, in the guidelines issued by the Central Ministries, which determine the processes of implementation of the Centrally Sponsored Scheme. The review is expected to be completed by the end of September, 2007.

At the third meeting of the Council of Ministers of Panchayati Raj convened on 17-18 August, 2007 at Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala, under the Chairmanship of the Union Minister of Panchayati Raj, the Council in its conclusions, stated as follows:

"The Council of Ministers resolves that since Ministry of Panchayati Raj has been meticulously mapping the progress achieved across States, inclusive of the implements they are encountering in moving ahead, and there is now an enormous amount of State specific data compiled, and further since the dialogue with Central Ministries in respect of Centrally Sponsored Schemes is nearing completion through a Committee lodged in the Cabinet Secretariat, it would be appropriate that Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Planning Commission be requested to convene a meeting of the National Development Council, chaired by Hon'ble Prime Minister on Panchayati Raj and Decentralized Planning".

(e) The status of devolution of funds, functions and functionaries to the Panchayati Raj Institutions are given in the Statement.
